

Vita associativa

IT CONTROL JOURNAL DI NOVEMBRE 2004

È disponibile, per gli associati, il sesto numero del 2004 dell' Information Systems Control Journal dedicato ai temi della formazione (Audit Education) e del ruolo professionale (the Auditor's Role).

<http://www.isacaroma.it/html/newsletter/?q=node/41>

<http://www.isacaroma.it/pdf/news/0411-icj.pdf>

Elenco degli articoli:

A Wake Up Call to All Information Security and Audit Executives: Become Business-relevant	Patrick Taylor
Building an Educational Response to Terrorism: A Multifaceted Problem, A Multidimensional Response	William V. Maconachy, Ph.D., Corey Schou, Ph.D., James Frost, Ph.D., and John Springer, Ed.D.
COBIT: An Ideal Tool for Teaching Information Security Management	Malcolm Pattinson, CISA
Information Technology Auditing and Cybercommerce: A Risk Perspective	Jagdish Pathak, Ph.D.
ISACA Model Curriculum 2004: Continuing to Invest in the Future	Dr. Alan T. Lord, CISA, CPA, and Frederick Gallegos, CISA, CGFM, CDE
On Security Education, Training and Certifications	Julie J.C.H. Ryan, D.Sc., and Corey D. Schou
The Institutional Need for Comprehensive Auditing Strategies	Stu Milus
Utilization of Generalized Audit Software in an Information Systems Auditing Course	Gary B. McCombs, CPA, and Mohsen Sharifi, Ph.D., CMA, CQA, RAB-QA
Frameworkers of the World, Unite	Steven J. Ross, CISA, CISSP
The IT Dimension of Basel II	Erik Guldentops, CISA, CISM
Educating the Masses: Audit, Control and Security of Information Systems Today and Tomorrow	Frederick Gallegos, CISA, CDE, CGFM